Alex Trebek's wife, Jean Trebek, gathers team members for a new positive lifestyle website called www.insidewink.com

October, 2018 (Los Angeles, CA) — Alex Trebek's wife of 30 years, Jean Trebek, has gathered a team to create an online presence that will help “share the good” in the world. Over the past few years, Jean has met and worked alongside some of the country's visionaries and believes that spreading peace and unity should be our mutual goal. “It is so important that we all see that we have much more in common than we think, “ says Jean, “That is exactly why I want to start this.”

Jean has approached writer/actor Alison Martin, documentarian Trish Geiger, editor Jeanette Dubois, and web designers/social media consultants Patti Ring and Stephen O'Bryan of SMAKSMOG to help her in achieving her goal. “The team I am putting together are all people I respect and have faith in. I'm very excited.”

Ms. Trebek originally began filming interviews for a film on forgiveness. “I soon discovered that I wanted to create something that could continually grow. I wanted to share the artistry of so many people and create a ‘place’ that is accessible to everyone.” So, after some meetings, Jean was inspired to start an online magazine that is currently in the works. “I would like to feature writers and artists and people that are striving to follow their passions... that, to me, is truly inspiring.”

The plan is for the website to go live by the end of this year and officially launch in 2019. Jean states, “I have a feeling that people are hungry for this. I think we are tired of the disparity we feel and want something that truly feels good. I want to shed some positive light on the human condition.”
